

Unhappy with reading test, teachers blast board

By BRENDA GRACIN
MCN Special Writer

Tanya Dillin, Clint Evans, and Brandi Garlick were big winners in the Stock Market Game played by schools across Michigan this year. That wasn't an easy task considering the roller coaster ride on Wall Street the entire year.

This semester Dillin, Evans and Garlick finished 14th out of 566 teams in Southeast Michigan and Most of the profitable stock purchased was General Motors.

Wall Street here they come!

Some of the concerns district teachers have are: lack of time to administer the test; the tests' subjectivity; the tests' inconsistency; lack of valid results; testing students' achievement beyond current grade

That was a common theme among most of the teachers who addressed the board, the lack of curriculum time due to the many tests the United they may be, but whether or not they get results remains to be seen.

People Helping People

Volunteers are needed for popular program

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

"People Helping People" needs volunteers.

A unique Wayne project that assists seniors to fix up and paint up and make minor repairs to their homes is sending out their annual appeal for help.

This year's People Helping People project date is September 14.

"On this day you could make a big difference in the life of one of your neighbors," stressed Ed Mc-

Murray, People Helping People's Committee Chairman. "This is the day Friends 2002 will improve the exterior of the home of a pre-selected Wayne resident."

The program is in its fifth year in Wayne. Volunteers will be asked to donate one day to help with projects like painting, planting and minor repairs to a house. All volunteers will be requested to meet at 8 a.m. at the Senior Activity Center where they will enjoy a continental breakfast. Later, supplies will be issued to them and they will be taken to the work site.

After a few hours of work, lunch will be served at the site of the work project.

McMurray, who was instrumental in introducing the project to the City of Wayne, has several prominent citizens serving on the committee. They include: Nancy Wojewski-Noel, Senior Services Director; Peter McInerney, Community Development Director; Kim Fallow, Parks and Recreation Director; Audrey Tucker, a longtime resident and community activist; Councilwoman Donna McEachern, and Susan Sweet-

McMahan, Housing Rehab Specialist.

The committee is looking for volunteers and a commitment from local businesses, service organizations and community members for materials and supplies. If you are interested in volunteering or providing any of the much needed supplies, please contact Susan Sweet-McMahan at 722-2000, extension 215.

"We're urging everyone to join us to make this program a success again in our city this year," added McMurray.

City's top business person honored

One of the top restaurateurs in the city and area was honored recently by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce as the "2002 Businessperson of the Year."

Bashar Almhieid, the gregarious owner of the Beehive Family Restaurant in Wayne, and four other area restaurants, was named the recipient of the prestigious award.

Almhieid also owns and operates restaurants under the Beehive name on Wayne Road in Westland and in the downriver community.

Accompanied by his wife, Gail Bashar graciously accepted the plaque that honors his work as the Businessperson of the Year from Lois VanStipdonk during a brief ceremony at the Wayne Community Center. The award is presented annually by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce.

In 1994, Bashar purchased a centrally located restaurant on Michigan Avenue that had gone through a series of owners, first launched as a Blazo's Family Restaurant. At the time that Almhieid purchased the building, it was vacant.

Through hard work, his positive attitude and his commitment to the community, and serving meals that patrons enjoyed, the young restaurateur managed to turn the operation into a successful business and used it as a springboard for other business opportunities in the area.

Prominent Wayne restaurateur Bashar and his wife, Gail Almhieid, accept the plaque that symbolizes the "2002 Businessperson of the Year" from Lois VanStipdonk during a recent ceremony. The award is sponsored by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce and this year it was presented to the recipient during the Mayor's Exchange Day.

The Beehive is now a family-friendly, people oriented restaurant that attracts food lovers from the city and area.

The Almhieids now own five restaurants. Bashar and his wife also take time to help those in need. They provide a free Thanksgiving dinner for the community in which the donations are turned back to organizations such as D.A.R.E. and the Wayne Police

Scholarship Fund.

A sports-loving fan, Bashar also sponsors youth athletic teams, as well as contributing to community events.

The Almhieids have four children: Mare, Samir, Hannah and Lellina.

In making the presentation to Bashar Almhieid, the Chamber noted that "The Wayne Chamber of Commerce is proud to have a businessperson such as Mr. Almhieid as a member and wishes to congratulate him on being selected as the Businessperson of the Year for 2002."

Goudy Park benefit date set

Do you want to enhance a city park and maybe purchase an item you may need at dirt-cheap prices?

You can, if you attend a garage sale organized by the City of Wayne.

The Wayne Parks and Recreation Department is hosting a "Garage Sale" from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. on June 22 in the Wayne Community Center parking lot. The Community Center is located on Howe and Annapolis Roads.

Recreation officials note that all proceeds will be donated toward enhancing Goudy Park's playground.

Vendors who also want to take part may do so. Spaces are still available at $20 per space. Registration forms are available at the Community Center.

Residents or vendors who need more information are asked to contact the Wayne Community Center by calling 734-721-7400.

Wheelfest's King & Queen to receive a royal welcome

The search for the King & Queen of the 2002 Wheelfest is going right down to the wire.

But officials say that they will make their decision on who will wear the coveted crowns next week.

Wayne officials announced that they will crown their annual Wheelfest King & Queen during a ceremony scheduled for 6 p.m. on June 13 at Goudy Park.

Candidates for the titles must be Wayne residents between the ages of 16 and 19. They will be judged on their interviews by a panel of qualified judges who will take into consideration the candidates' skills and poise. The contestants also must submit an essay on the pertinent subject of "Why I entered the Wayne Wheelfest King & Queen Contest."

The King and Queen will each receive a $500 scholarship to be used to defray the costs of attending a college or university of his or her choice.

Following the King and Queen pageantry there will also be a concert by the King's Suite, a 50's/60's band.

Goudy Park is located behind the Wayne City Hall, on Wayne Road just north of Michigan Avenue.

All of the contestants will appear in the Wheelfest Parade which is scheduled for August 23 and will make special appearances during the Wheelfest weekend, which is Aug. 22-25.

John Stewart

Stewart seat is 20th district

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

State Representative John Stewart, a Republican from Plymouth, will be seeking the revamped 20th District House seat that will include the City of Wayne.

Rep. Stewart is running for his second of three possible terms in the House. He was first elected to the State House in 2000 and will face a Aug. 6 primary.

Because of the recently redrawn districts, Wayne was placed in the 20th district. However, the city will continue to be represented by Representative James Plakas until the November General Election.

34th District race offers several choices

By BRENDA GRACIN
MCN Special Writer

The race for 34th District Court Judge will be interesting. In a field of 5 candidates, Romulus, Belleville, Huron Township, Sumpter Township and Van Buren Township voters will have to decide who among them will oversee the day to day judicial processes of the district.

Michigan Community Newspapers will profile all five candidates giving voters the opportunity to learn something about each, in an effort to provide the information needed for voters to make an informed decision when voting in the August Primaries.

David A. Glaab, a New Boston attorney is a former Huron Township Supervisor. He acted as legal counsel and board member of PLAN, (People Limiting Aircraft Noise). He has served as Chairman of the Legal Research for Airport Noise Steering Committee, Vice Chairman of the Southern Wayne County Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of the Government Affairs Committee, and as a Former Board of Director Member of the Huron Township Chamber of Commerce.

He also participated in the Wayne

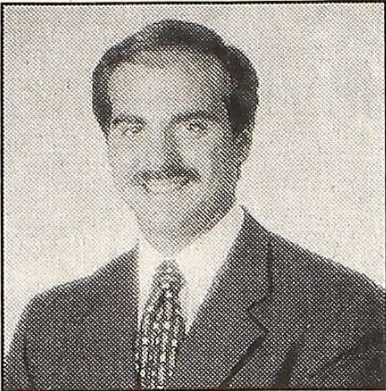

County Citizens Advisory Group when Representative Bruce Patterson was Commissioner, sat on Senator Loren Bennett's Legislative Advisory Group, and was a former member of the Government Passion Group arm of Vision 21.

He has extensive involvement with education including serving on a facilities study committee for Huron School District, on the Board of Canvassers, participated in National Reading Day, is involved in the Boy Scouts of America Outreach Program, and in Junior Achievement's Economics of Staying in School Program.

Glaab is a member of St. Stephen Church where he is a Lector, a Parish Council Member, the Director of Altar Servers and a former Catechism instructor.

His educational background includes Aquinas High School, Purdue University, BA, the Detroit College of Law where he earned the American Jurisprudence Award for Excellence in Insurance Law, and the University of Michigan and Wayne County Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program.

Glaab's professional experience includes; his hometown law practice, contributing author to a book written to help protect and preserve families and their assets; called Wealth Enhancement and Preservation, founding member of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, The Michigan Forum of Estate Planning Attorneys, the State Bar of Michigan, Downriver Bar Association, and as a Mediator at the 34th District Court.

David Glaab

When asked why he was seeking the 34th District seat Glaab responded with several thoughts. He wants to continue his community involvement as Judge. "I believe my philosophy of the role of the Court is our community is very consistent with the other two judges I will be working with," said Glaab.

In particular, families who rely on the courts to assist them in keeping their children on the correct path in life. "We must work together to help maintain a safe and productive society to help kids know the difference between right and wrong," said Glaab. He believes that teaching them about consequences of their actions can help prevent future activity in the criminal justice system.

Glaab is a strong proponent of personal responsibility and character. He advocates the threat of censure as a deterrent to bad behavior, understanding that it is when traditional restraints fail that the law becomes essential. "It is important to remember that it is difficult to use the criminal justice system to achieve what custom and morality once produced," Glaab said.

He is supported by State Representative Bruce Patterson who in speaking about Glaab refers to him as a person of character, honesty and integrity. "David is someone who has come to know his community, is sensitive to its needs, and continues to improve the quality of life," said Patterson.

Glaab is also supported by current 34th District Judges Tina Brooks-Green and Brian Oakley.

David M. Parrott, age 42, also seeks the seat being vacated by retiring 34th District Court Judge William J. Szlinis. A practicing attorney for 16 years, Parrot has primarily represented the collectively bargained pension plans of numerous local units of government in matters involving labor relations, tax, and administrative procedures. He has also been involved in domestic relations, investments, contracts, and regulatory compliance.

He has been involved in litigation at all levels of Michigan's court system, including appeals in the Supreme Court. He has served as both an arbitrator and a prosecutor, and frequently appears on behalf of individuals in District Court.

Parrot has lived in Van Buren Township since 1986. He received his BS from the University of Michigan in 1982 and his Juris Doctorate from Wayne State University Law School in 1985.

His community involvement includes; Citizens Helping to Improve Public Safety, the Huron Valley Conservation Association, the Belleville Area Council for the Arts, the Belleville Area Historical Society, the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce, the Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 934, and the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Parrot is a former president of the Van Buren-Belleville-Sumpter Democratic Club, which became the Southwestern Wayne Democratic Club. He has served on the Van Buren Water and Sewer Commission since 1993.

Parrot was instrumental in drafting man revisions to the Public Employee Retirement system Investment Act, which became Public Act 185 of 1996. He has been a frequent speaker at the Michigan Association of Public Employee Retirement Systems conferences. He is a member of the Michigan Association of Public Employee Retirement Systems and the National Association of Public Pension Attorneys.

Area State Representatives, including George Mans, Jim Plakas, Gloria Schermesser, and William O'Neil, Wayne County Commissioners John Sullivan and Kay Beard, Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Kay Tertzag and Romulus Mayor Alan Lambert all support the candidacy of Parrot

He has also been endorsed by several organized labor unions, including Greater Detroit Building Trades Council, the AFL-CIO, and the Michigan Teamsters Joint Council 43, as well as the 13th Congressional District Democratic Organization.

Parade participants

Among the Inkster Memorial Day parade participants this year was Congressman John Dingell, one of the longest serving legislators in the U. S. House of Representatives. Dingell not only participated in the parade he also provided free food and soft drinks for the crowds. Dingell, at far right, is seated with Congressman John Lewis of Georgia, the Rev. Ana Higginbothan, and her husband, the Rev. Thomas Higginbothan. Standing, from left, are Norena Knox, Alderene Solomon, Theola Jones, and Dorothy Garrett.

Summer will be busy for church members

By THEOLA JONES
MCN Special Writer

Smith Chapel A.M.E. Church in Inkster will be busy during the summer months.

Church members invite the public to attend several events that precede the annual observance of the popular Women's/Men's Day celebration.

Beginning with the "Spring Health Fair", scheduled for 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. on June 8, which includes free on-site Health Screening Services, there are many other notable events.

The fair is sponsored by State Representative Derrick Hale, and the combined Women's and Men's Day Committee, in conjunction with Project AIMHI of the Henry Ford Health System.

Transportation is available. For additional information, please contact the church offices at 313-561-2837.

Also, a Juneteenth Celebration commemorating the freeing of slaves will be held from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. on June 15. Free food, along with games, a story-teller, car wash and a Crazy Auction will also highlight the program.

A "Revival" will be conducted on Wed., June 19, until Friday, June 21, featuring the dynamic revival speaker, the Rev. Dr. George Champion.

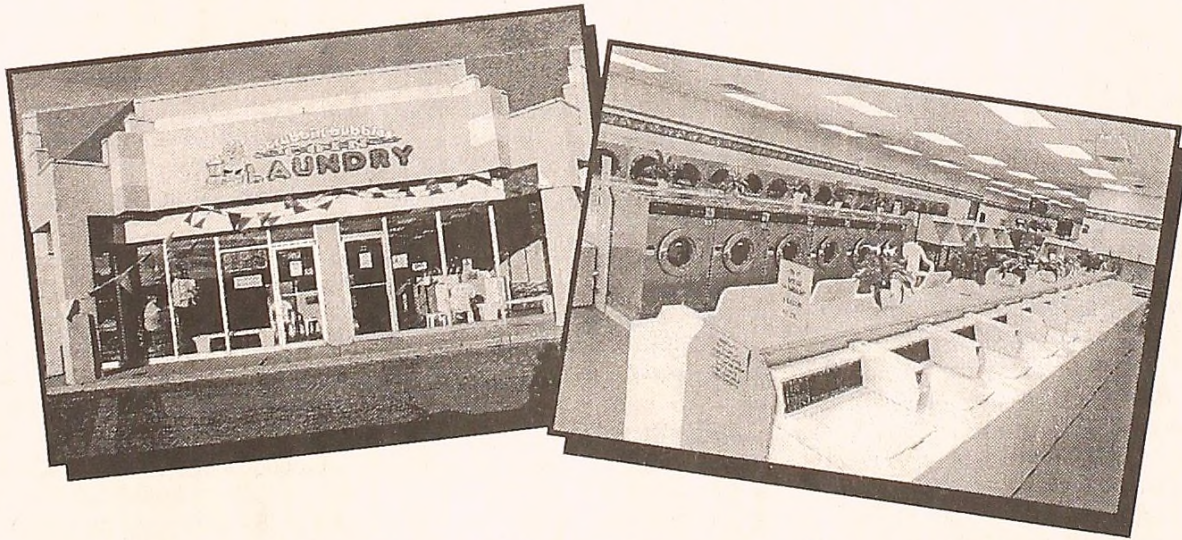

For fish lovers, a Fish Fry and a Flea Market are scheduled for noon until 6 p.m. on June 22.

Women's and Men's Day will conclude the celebrations. That special day is July 7 and it will begin at 11 a.m.

Smith Chapel is located at 3505 Walnut Street, the corner of Beech Street in Inkster.

Morning worship services are at 11 a.m. The Rev. Thomas M. Higginbothan is the church pastor, who is committed to leading the congregation to a "More Excellent Way", as written in 1 Corinthians 12:31, which serves as the theme for the July 7 Celebration.

COIN

Scrubbin and Bubbles offers clean clothes and deep tans

If you like your clothes clean and your tan deep, you might want to stop by Scrubbin and Bubbles.

The new business, with an initial opening on June 15, combines a coin-operated laundry, a tanning salon, a cyber cafe, and drop-off laundry and dry cleaning with full service on June 30.

Scrubbin and Bubbles decorated its 4,000-square-foot building at 910 S. Wayne in Westland to feel like a home.

"We want to offer something pleasingly different," said owner Jeff.

An engineer with two major automotive industry patents, strives to innovate.

"Scrubbin and Bubbles will introduce a new concept in coin-operated laundries," he said, "so we're implementing creature comforts and conveniences that no other coin laundry offers."

Instead of being left with nothing to do but watch laundry rotate in machines, Scrubbin and Bubbles' patrons can catch rays in standup Hex II tanning booths, play computer games or check their E-mail on computers, drink cappuccino or flavored-coffees at an espresso bar, or plump down on sofas and watch a wide-screen TV in a lounge.

"You no longer have to waste time at a laundry," he said.

Though offering an innovative concept, Scrubbin and Bubbles offers traditional values: competitive prices, friendly service, abundant amenities, and cleanliness.

Patrons can save money in the laundry by taking advantage of the longer drying cycles and larger machines, including only 80-pound washers, great for washing comforters.

"We have high-quality high-speed equipment -- the best in the business," Jeff said.

Amenities include 80 quiet washers, wide aisles, bright lighting, and folding tables with tall sides to provide complete privacy. Shaped like library carrels, the tables shield patrons' intimate garments from view.

If help is needed, attendants are on-site to provide laundry service with a smile, including accepting drop-off laundry and dry cleaning by the pound.

Long hours and competitive prices make Scrubbin and Bubbles' drop-off laundry attractive to people who work in Westland. For example, Scrubbin and Bubbles cleans queen-size comforters for $7.50.

"We will do a quality job," said Jeff, who owned Club Cleaners, a dry cleaners in Westland, for six years. "Clothes will come back with all their buttons, with all spots removed, and with no double creases."

State-of-the-art Hex II standup tanning booths with attached change rooms provide six to 12 minute sessions.

"That's half the time of lay down tanning beds," Jeff said.

Though provided to complement the coin laundry, competitive prices should lure tan-seekers to Scrubbin and Bubbles for the uniform rays beaming from powerful reflector bulbs.

One tanning session costs $6.50. A tanning package offers six visits for $5 per visit. Rates can even be lower for laundry patrons.

Powerful IBM computers, with high-speed Internet connections, have flat-screen panels so patrons can experience great graphics while surfing the Net or playing games.

Once again, competitive prices -- 10 cents per-minute instead 12 -- should lure computer users to Scrubbin and Bubbles.

The cafe will provide eight different drinks -- espresso or flavored coffees. Since the cafe's counter overlooks the lounge, coffee drinkers can sip and watch the wide-screen TV.

For parents with young kids, a play area with toys, building blocks, stuffed animals is nearby.

Scrubbin and Bubbles hours will open at 7 a.m. June 15. Patrons and part-time job applicants will be welcome then. (Before and after work, part-time workers can tan and use the computers for free.) A grand opening will follow on June 30.

We endorse Hill, Horvath, Madonna in highly contested Plymouth-Canton school board race; Weaver choice in Wayne-Westland Schools across Michigan will hold board elections on June 10, providing an opportunity for residents to choose those they believe will best serve their districts and children.

We would encourage voters to set aside time on Monday to vote for their candidates of choice. After reviewing information and talking to the candidates one-on-one, here is a list of candidates Michigan Community Newspapers endorses.

In Plymouth-Canton, where interest in schools appears to run higher than in other communities, several candidates have surfaced for three positions that are up for grabs. MCN asks voters to approve Clifford Hill and Mark Horvath for two four-year terms and Debbie Madonna for the one-year seat.

Hill supports improving the district's communications to the public, making the district more fiscally responsible and providing quality programs for students. He graduated with highest honors with a mathematics degree from Purdue University. He currently works as an IT Portfolio Manager at Ford Motor Co.

One of his pet projects is TAG, a program for talented and gifted students that is being debated by the board. And when it comes to communication, Hill has said, "It appears that the administration is not interested in the views of the community."

A desire to make Plymouth-Canton accountable to the public has prompted former school board president Mark Horvath to toss his hat in the ring again. A manager at Visteon, Horvath would like to focus on fiscal responsibility.

Horvath holds a degree in metallurgical engineering from Michigan Tech. He fondly recalls the creation of "a district finance committee that utilized fiscally knowledgeable community members to provide insight on the district's financial processes" as a communication avenue he created while he was on the board, and something he would like to re-institute.

Debbie Madonna is very much a community activist. Married with three children, she has served as Plymouth Music in the Park chairperson, a member of the Karmanos Cancer Institute, Marian Women's Center, St. Mary Mercy Hospital Advisory Board, Plymouth Community Arts Council, and the Plymouth-Canton School Community Council.

Madonna criticizes the district for saying that they are on sound financial ground, but then turning around and laying off teachers. "What message are we sending to our teachers when the board demonstrates a willingness to terminate their jobs without researching alternatives?" she asks.

In Romulus, four candidates are campaigning heavily for two four-year spots on the Board. The candidates are Troy LaPorte, Kenneth Mientkiewicz, Celeste Roscoe and Rendell Wooden. Although all are qualified, we endorse Mientkiewicz and Rendell.

Mientkiewicz, like his three opponents, is a lifelong resident of Romulus, having graduated from Romulus High School and receiving a masters in guidance and counseling from Eastern Michigan University. He has taught at the former Cherry Hill School District and Wayne-Westland. He retired in 1998.

A former Romulus Planning Commissioner, Mientkiewicz currently sits on the Zoning Board of Appeals. His platform is two-fold: provide more courses for college bound students and curb excessive spending. "Certain salaries are not in alignment with surrounding school districts," he said.

Wooden has been employed as an elections clerk for 28 years in the City of Romulus. She is responsible for the administration of all elections within the city. She hopes to provide strong leadership by reducing the Homestead property tax and emphasizing student achievement.

In Wayne-Westland, one seat is up for grabs. Two candidates, Fred Weaver and Carol Gillentine, are vying for the four-year position. We endorse Weaver.

Weaver has clear and precise ideas as to where he would like to see the district go, and is willing to work hard to help achieve those goals. His involvement with the Hamilton PTA and its programs to raise funds has provided Weaver with experience that will be beneficial in helping solve district financial problems, and in setting district budgets.

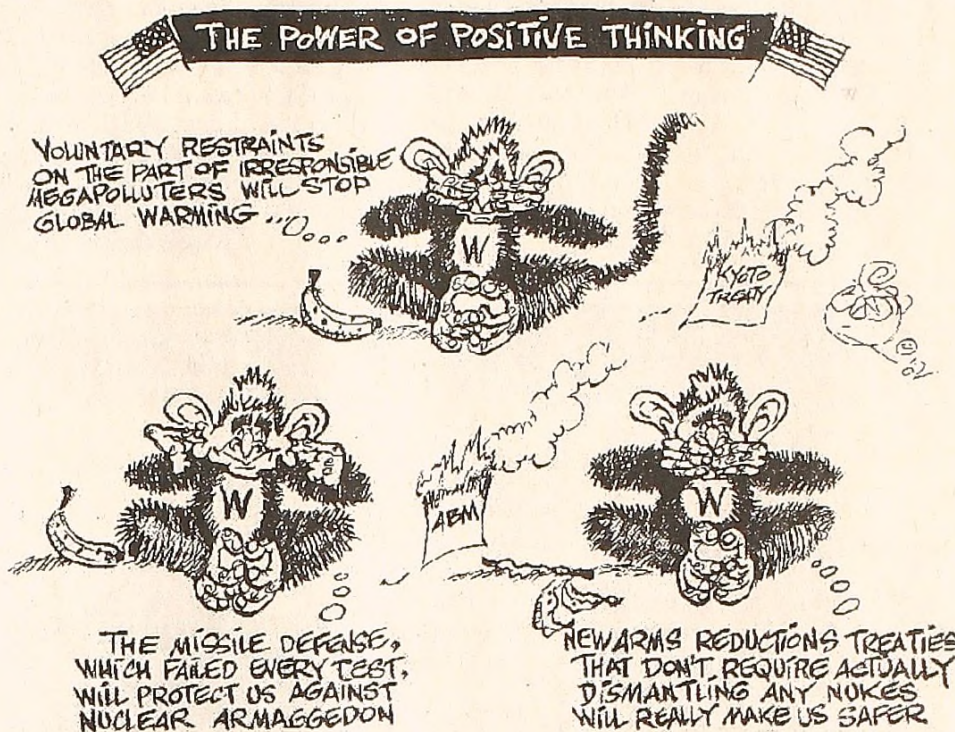

Three candidates are seeking two seats in Van Buren. We endorse David Peer and Victor Hogan. Peer, an incumbent, has the experience necessary to continue seeing the district through trying times. Peer recognizes that student achievement must be the number one goal, and would like to continue to press that issue with the administration.

Hogan has the employment, educational and community background necessary to make him an asset to the board. He stresses a need for smaller class sizes and improved facilities.

Mike's musings

Mike Wilcox

Time for columnist to eat crow

Time for me to eat crow. Just don't cook it in the incinerator.

Five weeks ago, I compared Westland's credibility on the proposed .6-mil sanitation tax to the credibility of O.J. Simpson's advice to murder suspect Robert Blake.

"The manure was no less deep," I said.

O.J. had piled on manure to save his life, I said, while "Westland's government piled it up to mask their denial of the incinerator scam, which costs the city an extra $1.6 million a year (or four fire trucks or 20 firefighters), and to cover up their continued protection of the original scammers (who burdened taxpayers with white elephant that spews a nasty plume out of its skyward trunk) — whoever they may be."

And then I asked voters to turn down the millage request "unless the council has seriously consulted with . . . attorneys (specializing in changing or busting incineration contracts)."

But the manure turns out to be mine, not the city's, and I now ask voters to support the tax increase.

Recent actions by Mayor Sandy Cicirelli and Westland City Council members have convinced me that the city is making good faith efforts to defang the bloodsucking incinerator contract, a contract that costs Westland $62 per-ton to burn a ton of garbage, five to six times the going rate.

The good faith efforts came to fruit last Monday, when Mayor Cicirelli wrote a letter to Frank Andracchi, Central Wayne Energy Recovery Limited Partnership's vice president, asking him to sit down and talk turkey in early June.

"I am writing to request a meeting with you to discuss renegotiation of the contract, especially as it relates to the charges to the City of Westland," she wrote. "We request that the meeting with you and your representatives take place as soon as possible."

In a phone conversation, Cicirelli called the meeting a first step; a first step that Constellation will take with Westland, according to Joe Skruh, Constellation's financial manager.

"We will get our team together and meet with her side," he said.

Cicirelli is looking for a price break and for more compliance with the contract. One compliance issue is the incinerator's failure to provide Westland, Wayne, Inkster, Garden City, and Dearborn Heights — the Authority communities who financed the incinerator — with their own garbage drop-off lane. Another issue is the timeliness of the incinerator's tax payments.

Vantastic

Ivan Helfman

If the contract can't be renegotiated, Westland is prepared to take a second step.

Cicirelli and the city council budgeted $15,000 to pay for expert help in changing the contract to benefit of Westland's taxpayers.

Passage of the five-year millage will give the strapped city some breathing room while it tries to renegotiate or break the contract, saving the city up to $1.6 million a year in garbage disposal costs.

For rising to the challenge of trying to correct a ruinous contract approved by an earlier less astute mayor and city council, Mayor Cicirelli and the current council members need voters' support for the Aug. 6 garbage millage.

Making voter fraud convenient

If a bill introduced in the Michigan House of Representatives by five Democrat legislators becomes law (HB 4161), ballots could be cast (and counted) by persons who have never been seen by an election official or appeared at a local voting precinct.

Under current Michigan law, persons who register to vote by mail (with certain limited exceptions) must appear in person at the local precinct the first time they vote. After that they could cast absentee ballots.

HB 4161, sponsored by Representatives Sheltown, Spade, Lipsey, Bovin and Dennis, would change the law to allow those registering by mail to vote by absentee ballot even the first time.

The intent of the current law requiring an initial appearance at the local precinct is twofold. First it allows precinct workers to verify that there is a real person associated with the name on the voter registration listing. Secondly (at least in theory) it allows the signature on the sign-in slip each voter is required to fill out with the signature on that person's application for voter registration.

Medium Rare

Requests for absentee ballots are routinely honored for anyone claiming to be out of town on Election Day. Once a person has voted by absentee ballot, most City Clerk's offices automatically send that person an absentee ballot at the next election.

HB 4161 would make fraudulent voter registrations almost impossible to detect. But, according to a long-time precinct worker in Ann Arbor, there is already a huge glitch in the system.

Originally, new voters could only be registered by authorized "registrars" who turned the applications in to the City Clerk, which then became a part of the record available to precinct workers at election time. This allowed comparison of the signature on the application with that on the sign-in slip on Election Day.

Since the Congress mandated that persons applying for driver's licenses and automobile registrations be allowed to register to vote at that state office (the so-called motor-voter law) applications with original signatures of the applicants are no longer forwarded to local election officials.

While, under current law, precinct workers can verify that a real person is voting, in many cases they no longer have the original signature of the person for comparison with that on the sign-in slip. All the person showing up to vote has to know is the name, address and date of birth that appears on the voter registration list.

There is a remedy to this problem which is simply to require that voter registration applications with the original signature be forwarded to local election officials.

The right to vote is the foundation of our constitutional republic. Implicit in that right is that our votes should not be diluted or nullified by fraudulent votes.

Romulus mayor what to do, leaning forward in her chair, with her back to Crova most of the time?

Caller doubts Sound Off claim of more patrol cars on Westland's streets

To the person who thinks more cops are going to be on Westland's streets: you're nuts.

You're also a moron. The people in records are civilians, not police officers. Westland should get back to full service in the records department of the police department.

Misleading to say that Westland is stuck with the 'loser' incinerator

It is misleading to keep saying that the incinerator is something Westland is stuck with.

Are you folks totally clueless? Everybody knows that contracts are opened up and renegotiated every day. Really bad ones are ended all the time. [Last week Westland Mayor Sandra Cicirelli asked Constellation Energy to begin renegotiating the contract.]

If I was Mrs. Graunstadt, I'd quit helping the mayor and the others on council out because obviously most have little regard for her knowledge on the topic.

It is not enough to compliment her expertise, for gosh sakes people, listen to her and heed her advice. Have you forgotten she's the one who predicted this thing was a loser from the beginning?

More stuff

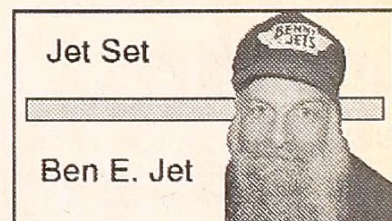

There was a rumor running around the newspaper building that a young lady from Inkster wanted to know who David Hicks was. As in David Hicks Elementary School on Cherry Hill Road, west of Inkster Road.

So, being the good-guy investigative reporter I pretend to be, I called the school board. A young lady there told me that most schools are named after presidents. I asked if she really thought David Hicks was one of those schools? She said she wasn't sure but could try to find out and get back to me.

She never did, so I went right to the school.

One of my favorite principals, Ben Edmondson, was busy in a meeting, so I couldn't talk to him. But he called me back.

With no luck, I walked around the school looking for a plaque or monument. Then I came across a teacher in the parking lot, who took the time to explain that David Hicks was a local farmer who donated the land so the city could have a school.

I can only hope that word of this column reaches descendants of Mr. Hicks, the school teacher, the board of education, the principal, and the little girl who asked the question.

I need to start doing my part to help promote the Belleville Strawberry Festival, June 14-15, in the entertainment tent next to the ferris wheel at St. Anthony's Church. The band Difference of Opinion will perform with Benny and the Jets.

I am wondering if we could do some kind of strawberry eating contest? Who could eat the most strawberries or a 1/2 gallon of strawberry ice cream the fastest. Or the old-fashioned strawberry pie eating contest.

For Benny and the Jets play dates, to hire the band or to contact Ben E., call (313) 730-1627 or surf to WWW.BENNYANDTHEJETS.COM.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Dickerson inconsistent on budget

To the editor:

At the May 21 public hearing concerning the proposed Wayne budget, Councilman Bob Dickerson rambled on for well over an hour.

He was arguing with Judge Archibald about budget-mandated staff reductions for the court. He argued that all departments were required to reduce personnel and trim their budgets. The reduction of court personnel by two was needed to operate the City in the black and maintain a 5 percent contingency fund.

We have a cash reserve amounting to 5 percent of the budget. This is prudent management of the cities resources and it is also an "almost" requirement of the bonding companies. This gives us a favorable rating in order to give us better interest rates when we sell bonds to build new buildings.

Dickerson managed to obtain a concession from the judge when she agreed to try to produce more revenue by increasing the fine amount per ticket. This was in exchange for keeping one of the two workers, leaving the juvenile program and community work program intact.

Doing a little work with a sharp pencil shows that the projected increase in revenue would be around $50,000. Mr. Zech pointed out that in order to keep the staff and the two programs, it would take an increase of $71,000 in ticket revenues to balance the court budget.

Of course, this is only if the tickets are written by the police and the fines collected by the court. At least $21,000 will have to come out of the contingency fund to make up the difference, maybe more.

Next up to the podium is the fire department budget. The fire budget called for leaving vacant two firefighter positions. The proposed budget also called for leaving vacant a fourth Lieutenant position.

What's wrong with this picture? At this point, Councilman Dickerson did a complete about-face on exercising budget restraint. He made a motion to add a firefighter and a fourth Lieutenant to the fire budget.

For another hour, Councilman Dickerson reasoned, argued and pleaded that these increases were necessary to maintain staff level promised by the City. He further implied that this would reduce the cash balance by only $55,000.

No LSD in LaLaland

To the Editor:

Sir, you are truly showing your age.

I am a transplant from Michigan to California and I assure you that outside of a handful of throwbacks from the sixties, there are no beatniks or hippies.

There is no LSD. Ask for that out here in 2002 people would be saying, "What's that?"

I moved over twenty years ago for the work and climate, but those condition do not come cheap.

I live across the street from a boy who was being home-schooled, and in this case it didn't work. This student had no social interaction with other children, and the parents were falling short, to say the least. The state came in and had them put the boy into public school.

You are misleading your readers with your nutshell depiction of a California long since past.

I would admit one thing, though. People do eat healthier out here. Why? because we can.

Sincerely,

Businesses boost MEAP

To the editor:

The Wayne Memorial High School staff and students would like to thank the following businesses for their generous gifts: Wayne Dairy Queen, Red Robin, Applebee's, McDonald's, Red Lobster, and Toarmina's Pizza made generous during this year's M.E.A.P. testing program.

The donations from these establishments were used to reward students for their perfect attendance during the M.E.A.P. testing. Their contribution was an important incentive for our students.

The assistance of parents and support from these establishments help enable Wayne Memorial to accomplish far more than it otherwise could. The businesses that contributed are especially valued for bringing the schools and community together.

On behalf of the parents, students, and administration, I would like to thank you again.

Sincerely,
Heidi N. Schnabel
Wayne Memorial High School
assistant principal

City Manager John Zech reminded the councilman that his math was wrong. John Zech said, "Cost of benefits has to be included. When pay goes up, so does the cost of benefits."

After all of the dust had settled, the cost of the increased fire staff would be $77,000. Fortunately, the motion died 3-4, with Mayor Haidous, and council members McEachern, Lentine, and Kelly casting the no votes.

Fiscal responsibility by the city manager's staff and the city council is a must. You cannot keep giving away the company store and expect to operate the city in a responsible manner. When you and I get our paycheck, we operate within those amounts. We have to stop spending when the money is gone. The city must operate the same way.

I reminded the council of something Senator Everett Dirksen said so long ago, "A billion here and a billion there and pretty soon you're talking big money." Well, $50,000 here and $50,000 there and pretty soon you're talking big money.

To quote former Councilwoman Powser, "It's your money folks." It is indeed.

May I further remind the citizens of Wayne that we would not be in this budget mess had fiscal responsibility governed the council's decisions in recent times. Against John Zech's recommendation, the council voted to sell only $5.2 million in bonds, not the $5.9 million recommended. Well, the interim fire station cost $5.9 million dollars to build. John Zech then had to come up with $700,000 to offset the difference in the cost of the interim fire station and the bonds sold.

There is still to be reckoned with, the cost of converting the interim fire station to DPW usage.

Put that $700,000 with the $365,000 paid for the unneeded lot on Ash Street, almost triple the assessed value.

The fire station could have been built on Wayne and Clinton with no need for an interim station, thus removing the necessity of paying for the Ash Street house.

Think about it. The city could have sold the fire station property and the extra lot already with it, for the same price as they would have paid for the property on Wayne and Clinton. That property was offered to the city for $360,000 before the purchase of the Ash Street property. The purchase price could have been a wash, even Steven.

Then there's the $300,000 given to Newberry Square. Total them all up and it amounts to $1,365,000. If the city still had that money there would no need for budget cuts. There would be no reduction in personnel. There would be no need to reduce some programs, nor would we be reducing the hours of operation of the State Wayne Theater.

Shirley Powser wanted a couple of heads on the platter for a figure far less than that.

Can you see what is happening, have you figured out what is going on? Pardon me folks, but according to my figures, we are going to end up paying over $11 million dollars for a $1 million dollar fire station. That is not what anyone of sound mind could call fiscal responsibility in any way, shape or form.

All of this is going on while revenue sharing from the state has gone way down and the end is not yet in sight.

Fortunately, there are three council members and a mayor who know how to exercise budget restraint. The other three have yet to learn.

Sincerely,
Edward McMurry

Voters urged to turn out

To the editor:

We have a Wayne-Westland school board election coming on Monday, June 10, and because it's just a school board seat, most of the time less than two percent of the voters turn out to cast their vote.

The schools always say they need a millage to keep running or they say they will have to make cuts just to keep open. Of course, if you look at the land they did own the Cady School, the Wilson School on Wildwood, and part of the land next to the Adams School, and you'll see duplexes and homes that someone made out quite well on.

And that's because most of the time the people won't come out to vote, so it's easy to get the people they want on the school board, and that's a shame — but true.

As it gets closer to when the election signs will be torn down, and we will have cheap attacks on the opponent from anonymous people or from Ray Blow in hopes of turning off the voters. I must say, most of the time it works.

However, I hope that on June 10 you come out and cast your vote and let a true count of voters decide who wins.

I will be voting June 10 and I'll be voting for Fred Weaver, and I hope that you will too because I feel he is the best one for the job.

But the one sure thing that I know is that with more people coming out to vote, the better chance the people have to get a school board that works for all the people and not just for certain developers, as in the past.

I hope to see your vote-counted June 10, and I do thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,
James R. Davis

Article too subjective

To the editor:

I feel you have done a great injustice to a good friend of mine and a good citizen of Westland.

Her name is Emily Coombs and you have made some gross errors on the article you printed recently, "Jail my son's killer!" (May 30 Westland Eagle).

First of all, there were some simple mistakes in the information printed about her preliminary sentence. Emily will be on probation for five years, not five months. She also will be required to do 150 hours of community service not 150 months. This accident occurred on Wayne Road outside the Wayne Bowl, north of Ford Road, not at Town 'N Country Bowl, on Wayne Road south of Cherry Hill.

Also, I'm curious where you received the information that Kevin Perry, the motorcyclist, was traveling at the rate of 35 mph? Is that a fact of the case?

It was also stated in your article that Emily "shot out" of the parking lot. I don't believe that a witness ever was reported as saying they saw Emily's bright yellow Ford Ranger shooting out of the parking lot.

You seemed to be telling a one-sided story and inserting information that has not been determined to be true.

You also left out the fact that Kevin Perry's blood was tested for alcohol and was found to have a level of .10 on his first test and .08 when tested again, a period later which is standard procedure. Why wasn't this printed in your article? Wouldn't that be an objective stance?

I am very angry and in wonderment about the quality and integrity of the journalism displayed in this sad event. Objectiveness and accuracy has been lost in the frenzy of persecuting a young woman who was in an accident, and the only reason it has been decided that she is the one at fault is because she is still alive.

They both had alcohol in their system, but because he was on a motorcycle, and so was less likely to survive a high speed collision (and therefore did not survive), he was automatically found not at fault.

But who was traveling at high speed? A truck pulling out of a driveway is not traveling as fast as a cyclist already cruising on the road with a speed limit of 45 mph. I don't think we have all the facts in this event yet you printed an article that directly blames Emily while not pointing out any of the facts that place at least some blame on Mr. Perry.

Sincerely,
Michael Furgerson

Wayne, Wakefield win big in district

Champs 'mercy' Garden City, Churchill to advance to LP regional

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Wayne Memorial and Coach Tom Wakefield's wish list is becoming a reality.

"We're reaching those goals we set for ourselves this season," said Wakefield after his team's overpowering performances at the district playoffs, which won the school its first district championship in nearly a decade.

"We wanted to win our division (Mega-White) before we moved to the Western Lakes, and we definitely wanted to win a district title, and we accomplished that on Friday. A regional championship would be something that would make this season unforgettable."

Wakefield did not have to grope for an explanation for his team's success in the district or in the stretch.

"These kids are focused on what they want and are working to obtain their goals," added the Wayne coach. "I am going to knock on wood, with the three victories in the pre-district and district, we have a 14-game winning streak."

Wayne crushed Churchill 10-0 to win the district championship as the Zebras' ace, Jim Barter pitched a one-hitter, struck out three and walked three for his seventh victory in eight starts. Barter missed his no-hit bid in the second inning when Churchill's Brad Poremba laced a single to right field.

Wayne scored single runs in the first, second and fourth innings before exploding for seven more in the bottom of the fifth which called the ump to invoke the "mercy rule". (Under the rule, the umpire may end the game if a team has a 10 or more run advantage over its opponent.)

Wayne collected nine hits off of two Churchill pitchers. Andrew Caldwell had a double and a single in four at-bats, including a pair of runs batted in. Teammate Marc Townsend also drove in two runs with a pair of singles in three official times at the plate. Ryan Ybarra also drilled a single, scored twice and stole a base for the winners.

Behind righthander Bob Bailey's five-hitter, Wayne also crushed Garden City, 12-2, in the opening round of the district playoffs. Bailey notched three strikeouts, walked four and gave up five hits.

Ybarra came through with two hits, scored three times and managed to steal twice. Wayne also got three hits and two stolen bases from Greg Laws, who scored three times

Chris Judd chipped in three RBIs and Caldwell finished the game with a double and triple and two RBIs. Sean Monit and Townsend each had two hits while Townsend had a perfect 3 for 3, including two runs scored, two stolen bases and two RBIs.

In the pre-district encounter with Livonia Franklin, Wayne won a 5-2 ball game to qualify for the district tournament. Again it was Barter who got the job done on the mound as he equaled a season's high 11 strikeouts, walked only one and tossed a four hitter against the Patriots.

Wayne jumped out in front 5-0 before the Patriots got on the scoreboard with two runs in the top of the seventh. Cadwell drove in two runs and Laws had an RBI single, while Brett Newsted came through with a pinch-hit, RBI single.

Wayne will place its 14-game winning streak and 22-9 record on the line on Saturday at a regional hosted by Lincoln Park.

Wakefield and the Zebras will clash against the Patriots of Dearborn in the 11 a.m. game. The winner will take on the winner of the Livonia Stevenson and Henry Ford game, which for 1 p.m. The championship will be decided beginning at 3 p.m.

Eagles reach finals, fall, 8-1

Keith Brothers' last campaign as head baseball coach at Romulus High ended Saturday on the field at New Boston Huron.

His tenure as coach ended in a split decision for the gregarious coach.

Brothers, who has had three winning seasons during his four seasons at Romulus, managed to finish with an even .500 (14-14) in his fourth and final year as head of the Romulus baseball program after the Eagles beat Willow Run, 7-3, in the first round but lost to Milan, 8-1, in the Class B finals hosted by New Boston Huron on Saturday in a day perfect for baseball.

"We were hampered by injuries early in the season," said Brothers, after the Milan loss. "But these kids never gave up. They battled their way back all season. I don't think I have had a bunch of better kids."

Brothers noted that a former Romulus High coaching great, Lowell Johnson, who presently resides in Milan attended the game. Johnson was the last coach to win a district title in the sport nearly a decade ago.

"He (Johnson) was my coach while I was in high school," related Brothers. "He looked just like he did when he coached. It was really good to have him here, to talk to the kids. They were really impressed."

So impressed, that the Eagles pounded out 15 hits to support starting and winning pitcher Josh Phillips who fired a five-hitter to shoot down the Willow Run Flyers, 7-3, in the first round of the playoffs.

Phillips, a southpaw, fanned seven and walked five to chalk up his team's 14th and final victory of the 2002 campaign.

Romulus put away its opponents in the third inning when they scored four runs thanks to a leadoff single by Mike Murphy, who was erased in an attempted steal. Then, Phillips came right back with a dou-

Wayne Memorial ball players were all smiles and had a rare opportunity to celebrate after their two stunning "mercy" victories over Garden City and Livonia Churchill on Saturday that gave them their first Class A District baseball championship in nearly a decade. They won't have much time to rest, however, as Coach Tom Wakefield's team is scheduled to play Dearborn at 10 a.m. on Saturday at Lincoln Park High School in the first round of the regional playoffs. Wayne will place a 14-game winning streak and a 22-9 overall record on the block. Photo by Julie LeBlanc

Belleville beats Truman, loses to Kennedy in finals

Committing five of eight errors that opened the way to a four-run Taylor Kennedy fifth inning, Belleville fell, 7-3, in the finals of the Class A district baseball playoffs staged at Kennedy High School Saturday afternoon.

Kennedy won the district title and will advance to Lincoln Park to compete for the regional championship scheduled for Saturday.

"We had the momentum and have been playing excellent ball these final weeks until that horrendous fifth inning hit us," said Belleville sophomore Coach Chris Dessellier, who wasn't around at the finish of the game because he unsuccessfully disputed an umpire's controversial call and was ejected from the game.

Against Kennedy, Belleville struck first.

The Tigers erupted for two runs in the first inning as Phil Meadows hammered a double off of winner Tom Pate. Meadows scored on Derrick Brooks' single. He eventually scored when Jack Schmidt also laced a single into the outfield.

Dessellier started Derrick Dufrane who worked the first four innings, struck out five and walked three before handing the ball over to reliever Josh Wisniewski who finished up. Dufrane suffered the loss.

Pate was tagged for nine hits, two each by Dufrane, Schmidt, Brooks and Bobby Block.

The loss left the Tigers one-victory shy of the .500 mark for the season. They finished 13-14 on the year.

"It was a very tough loss for us," said Dessellier, who brought the curtains down on his second year as head coach at Belleville. "We had a great stretch run, but those eight errors against Kennedy cost us."

Dessellier said he "was very proud of this team. We had a great time, and had some fun. That is what high school baseball is all about."

In the opening round of the playoffs, Schmidt twirled a four-hitter in winning a 4-1 decision over Truman. The Belleville senior righthander struck out two, walked one in 5 2/3 innings on the mound. He was relieved by Andrew Gabrys.

The Tigers managed to score their first two runs in the fourth as Block walked, reached third when Schmidt doubled. Billy Vantop also walked to load the bases and Dar-

Churchill upsets Glenn in district playoffs, 9-7

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Livonia Churchill did the unimaginable to Westland John Glenn and Coach Todd Duffield. The Chargers eliminated the host in the first-round of the Class A district baseball championships, 9-7. That loss ended the Westland high school season.

Considered by many as the best team in the area this season, Glenn wound up with an outstanding 23-8 won-lost record and a third of the Lakes Division crown in the Western Lakes Conference.

"To say I'm disappointed would be the understatement of the season," said Duffield after the season-ending loss. "We had greater expectations for this team."

"However, it (losing) is something you always have in the back of your mind, but this team and I had a greater things in mind. To their credit, Churchill did the unimaginable."

What unfortunately happened to Glenn was that Churchill scored five runs in the top of the six and hung dearly to a 9-7 victory. The Chargers, however, were "mercied" by Wayne Memorial; (see related story on this page) in the district finals.

Churchill jumped on losing pitcher Brandon Ajlouny for a run in the opening inning, then added three more in the second before the Westlanders took two of them back in the bottom of the inning. The Rockets tied the game at four in the fifth before the Chargers replied with their decisive five-run outburst in the sixth.

Ajlouny gave up four runs and five of the Chargers' 12 hits before Duffield decided on a pitching change after 2 1/3 innings. The Glenn coach called for Kyle Rutkowski, who was tagged for five runs on seven hits for his 2 2/3 innings of work. Senior Julian Fraser finished up.

Churchill went with John Morariarty for their starter, but he was literally knocked out of the pitcher's mound after a line drive struck him in the forehead. Morariarty was rushed to the hospital for observation.

"We haven't gotten any further news on the Churchill player," Duffield said. "He was hit pretty hard."

Morariarty was relieved by Paul Wozniak who finished up and got credit for the victory.

The two Churchill pitchers gave up a total of eight hits, three by Rick Verville, and a pair of singles by Rutkowski.

Fans invited to select All-Area

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

The Michigan Community Newspapers' Sports Staff wants to thank those high school baseball fans who took time out last week to vote for their favorite high school ball player. The polling continues this week.

If you have a player who you believe deserves to be recognized on the mythical All-Area High School Baseball Team please contact the MCN Sports Desk by dialing 734-729-4000. You may also "fax" your player profile to our offices by sending the information to MCN Sports 734-729-6088.

Players must be a member of a high school varsity team that is in the MCN newspapers circulation area. Specifically, Wayne Memorial, Westland John Glenn, Belleville, Romulus, Plymouth-Salem, Plymouth-Canton, Inkster and Dearborn Heights Robichaud.

While you're at it, who do you think has earned the "Coach of the Year" distinction?

Beasley leads Romulus to 5th place in state

Senior sprinter wins gold in 100-meters

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

"She's just an exceptional athlete," says Romulus track coach Wade Cook, of protege, Patrice Beasley. "This high school has produced some outstanding athletes and she has to rank among the top, if not at the top."

Cook's superlatives were for reserved Patrice Beasley, who led Romulus to a fifth-place finish in Division 2 at the Michigan High School Athletic Association's State Track & Field Championships staged on Saturday at Houseman Field in Grand Rapids under perfect competing conditions.

Beasley not only won a gold in the 100-meter dash but she also anchored the Eagles' 400-meter relay team to a first place.

"It's incredible what she has done for the team and the program this year," stressed the Romulus coach.

Romulus amassed a total of 34 points for its fifth place. They trailed only Detroit Renaissance, which retained the Division 2 title with 52 points. Ypsilanti was the state's runners-up in the division (43), followed by Dearborn Divine Child (41), and Benton Harbor (36).

Others who finished in the top 10 in a field of more than 35 competing teams included: Grand Rapids Christian (27), Mattawan (26), Coopersville (22) and Chelsea (21).

Beasley shattered the old mark of 12:30 in winning the 100-meter dash. She led the field across the finish line with a dazzling 12:11 which erased the old record of 12:30 set by Latosha Joilet of Detroit Renaissance.

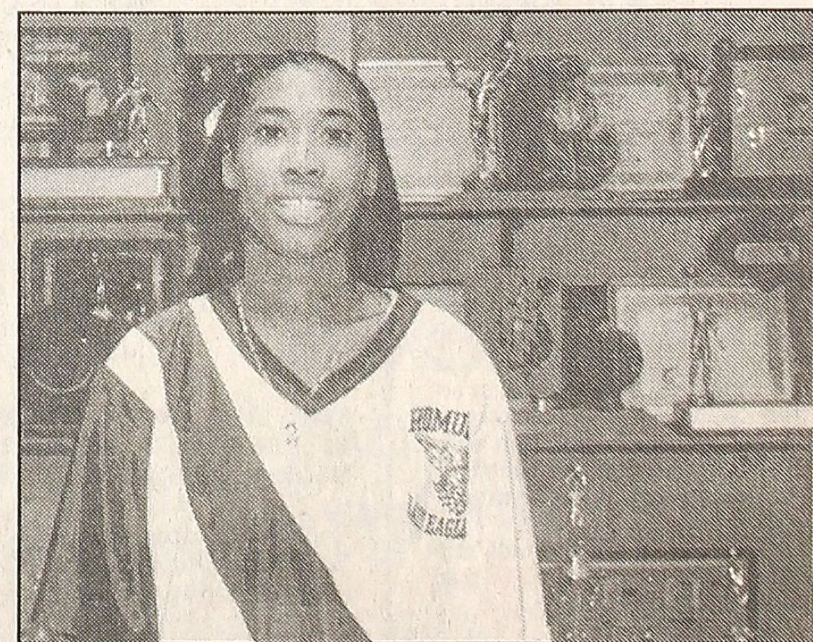

As she has all season long, Beasley teamed up with Crystal Austin, Marika Wise, and Shaepree Lee to capture the coveted gold medal for the 400-meter relay. They left Ypsilanti (49.88) and Benton Harbor (50.08) in their wake to fight it out for the silver and bronze medals.

Beasley also had a stunning performance in the 400-meter dash as she picked up her third medal, a bronze for the event. She crossed the finish line behind gold medalist Jessica Jones, of Detroit Renaissance, who was clocked in 56.99. The silver was awarded to Sara Jane Baker of Mattawan, who carded a 58.55. Beasley's 59.55 earned her a third place.

Detroit Renaissance was ready for the Romulus challenge in the 800-meter relay. Renaissance's Jessica Jones, Fallon Jenkins, Camilla Nelson and Joilet set a torrid pace and emerged with a winning time of 1:42.61.

Romulus's foursome posted the second-best time in the event. A 1:44.21 earned the Eagles the silver, while Detroit Central picked up the bronze for a 1:45.48 effort.

ble down the left field line. He moved to third on a pass ball and scored when Rich Rhinehart singled. Losing pitcher Dale Hazlett then got Steve Moore to pop up, but Ron Beasley drilled a single to put runners on first and third. Jacob Mercado kept the rally alive with a double and when Adam Malloy walked, Jamie Henne had the bases loaded when he strolled up to the plate. He delivered a two-run single.

Henne finished the game with two hits and three RBIs, while Mercado, Rhinehart, Murphy and Wood each collected two hits.

Milan exploded for four runs in the bottom of the fifth to end Romulus's dream of a district title.

Brothers started Mercado, the first of three Eagle pitchers. Mercado worked the first three innings, gave up two runs, struck out two and walked four before Phillips took over and was tagged for six runs in three innings of work.

The Eagles managed to get nine hits, two of those went to Woody. But Romulus also committed six errors, four of them in the fatal fourth frame.

Belleville

ren Parraghi came through with a two-run single.

In the fifth, Brooks, Block and Dufrane all singled and Josh Ivan belted a run-scoring double for the final Tiger run of the game.

Ivan chipped in with a single and double and Brooks also accounted for two hits. Block and Meadows each collected base hits off of losing pitcher Chad Ovia who gave up 10 hits, whiffed three and walked three in his final appearance of the 2002 season.

Wayne sets deadline for tennis registration

The Wayne Parks and Recreation Department is accepting registration for its summer tennis programs.

The programs are opened to all ages, and registration deadline is June 24.

Recreation officials say that the first session will commence June 25, while the second session is scheduled for July 26.

Classes are conducted on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Registration fees for 4 to 7 year olds are $30 for residents and $35 for non-residents; ages 8 up to high school ages, the fee is $40 for residents; $45 for non-residents; and for adults ($45) and $50 for non-resident adults.

For additional information about the tennis program or any recreation activity in the City of Wayne please contact the Wayne Community Center at 734-721-7400.

After a roller-coaster season in which they won 14 of their 28 games, Romulus High baseball coaches Thom Patterson (above, at left) and head coach Keith Brothers have decided to take a break from the challenge of fielding teams. In appreciation of their efforts, Romulus baseball parents presented Patterson and Brothers with Time Clock Plaques. Brothers, a Romulus High alumnus who replaced Don Foley as head coach, has posted four winning seasons during his five seasons. His teams have finished second-best in the Mega Conference, Gold Division twice. "The kids have been great, and I don't know how to explain this unforgettable experience. Coaching is something that you have to experience in order to understand and appreciate it."

Soccer tryouts set for girls' teams

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Soccer tryouts for girls who are 11 and over will be conducted at Tanger Elementary School in Plymouth for three days beginning June 17.

Head Coach Kerry Truxell said that he is seeking players who are dedicated to the sport and have some experience and skills.

"If you enjoy playing competitive soccer we would like to talk to you," Truxell said. "Soccer is an excellent sport that is very competitive as well as fun to play."

Prospective candidates must be 11 (born Aug. 1, 1991 or after) to try out. Tryout dates are June 17, 19 and 20 and will be held from 5:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. at the Tanger School, in Plymouth (just west of Haggerty Road, north side of 5-Mile).

The program is under the auspices of the Plymouth Parks and Recreation Department. Those needing further information are encouraged to call 734-261-0170.

Dodgers and Tigers post 3rd victories

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

The Dodgers and the Tigers have established themselves as the teams to beat this season in the Mustang Division of the Wayne Baseball Association.

The Dodgers edged the Athletics, 10-9, to stretch their modest winning streak to three games, while the Tigers also survived a scare, 8-7, at the hands of the D-Rays to remain undefeated. It was the D-Rays first setback of the year. They're 2-1.

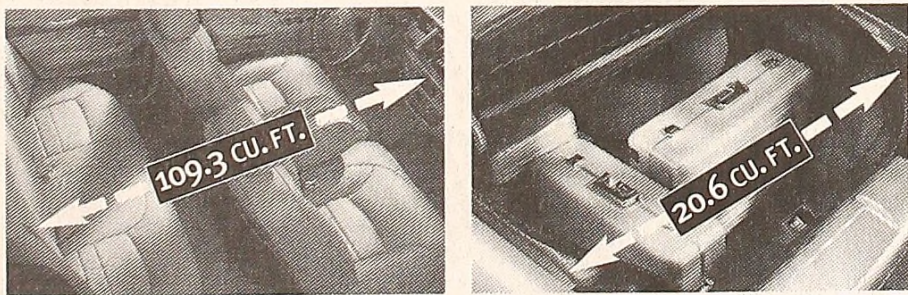

In the meantime, the Braves and the Phillies are still looking for their first win after two unsuccessful starts, and the Marlins occupy the cellar of the Mustang Division after losing three straight.

To report scores, coaches and managers are urged to contact Tim Bremen who can be reached by dialing 727-0779.

This year's Mustang League sponsors are: Athletics - Veteran's Haven, Inc.; Braves - Jack Demmer Ford; Devil Rays - Wayne Moose No. 835; Dodgers - Wayne Fire Fighters No. 1620; Marlins - Mark Chevrolet; Phillies - Ringmaster; and Tigers - Unistrut Corporation.

3. Card of Thanks

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Holy Spirit, you who make me see everything and who show me the way to reach my ideal. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that is done to me. You who are in all instances of my life with me, I, in this short dialogue want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desire may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Amen. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones. Persons must pray the prayer 3 consecutive days without asking your wish. After the third day the wish will be granted no matter how difficult it may be. Then you must promise to publish this prayer as soon as the favor is granted. L.D.

Romulus High

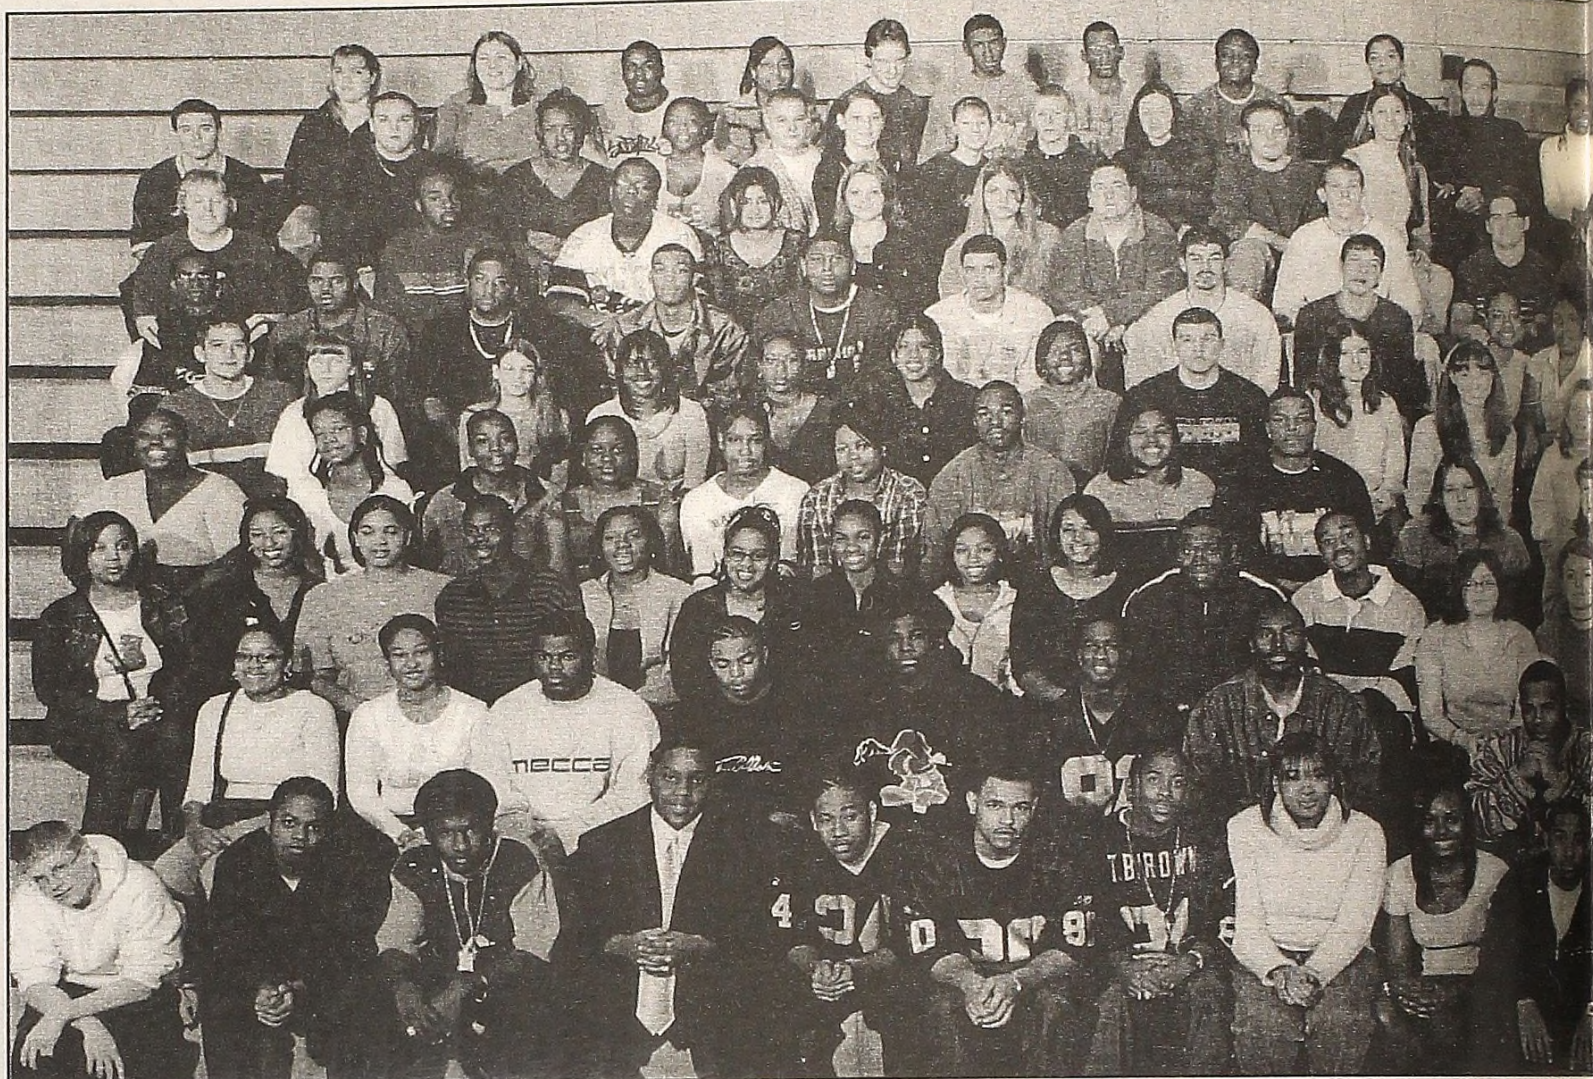

— CLASS OF 2002

Valedictorian

Jerome Gray

Valedictorian Jerome Gray set a high academic standard for his fellow Romulus Sr. High School Class of 2002 graduates. He achieved a four year grade point average of 3.995 and won a variety of awards including the Bert-Price $8,000 Diversity Scholarship to Grand Valley State University as well as a $2,500 State of Michigan MEAP Merit Scholarship. He will attend Grand Valley State as a psychology major. Jerome was also distinguished with several additional honors including awards from the U. S. Marine Corps, Phi Beta Kappa, the Social Studies Department and the prestigious Presidential Education Commission. He was active in school groups including the National Honor Society where he served as Secretary, Student Council, the Principal's Advisory Committee, Spanish Club, Business Professionals of America and the Marching and Symphonic Bands. Jerome has an older brother, Myron who is a 2002 graduate of Siena Heights College with a degree in Business Administration and a sister Tiffany who is a 7 grade Honor Roll student at Romulus Middle School where she performs in the school's award winning Symphonic Band. His mother LaJuan is a homemaker and his father Michael works for General Motors.

Class collects cash for shelter

Romulus Animal Shelter representative Kim Matthews (back-right) and Mary Rosenthal of Animal Magic, brought "Merlin", a very friendly Great Dane as a "thank you" to teacher Maureen Brennan's kindergarten class. Brennan's class donated $141 to the shelter through a year long penny drive.

ID help!

Romulus senior Katie Kortas involved students from Dorothy West's first grade class in her senior project on animal identification. Each senior must complete an English class project in order to graduate.

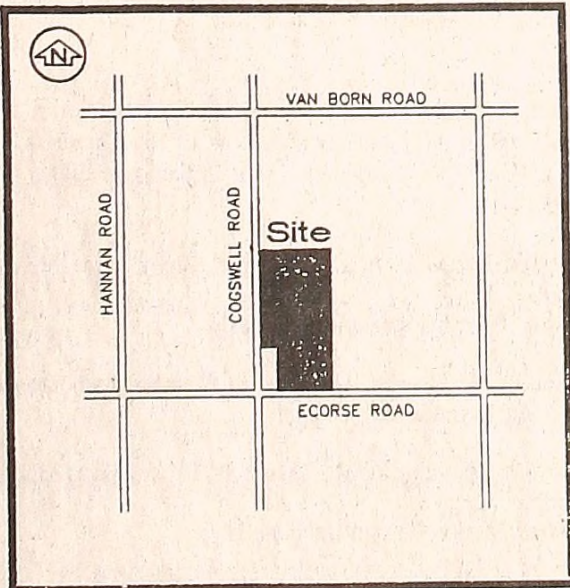

"Louie" visits Cory

Cory Elementary students got a treat with a special visit from "Louie the Lightning Bug" who explained electrical safety. Cory grandparents Cheryl and Waynard Shreve, both Detroit Edison employees, arranged for and introduced the program. With the Shreves', from left to right are Kayla Bryk, Charmaine Thomas, Denver Hohnowski and Cameron Barnes.
